

The Eye

Brandi Carlile / Key: F# (Capo 6, Play C) T=81

In: F• C••• F• C••• F• C• G• Am• F• C•••

F• C••• F• C••• F• C•
V1: It really breaks my heart to see a dear old friend,
G• Am• F• C•••

Go down to the worn-out place again,

F• C••• F• C••• F•

Do you know the sound of a closing door?

C• G• Am• F• C••• F•

Have you heard that sound somewhere before?

C• G• Am• F• C•• G••••

Do you wonder if she knows you anymore?

F•••• C••••
Cho: I wrapped your love around me like a chain,
F•••• G••••

But I never was afraid that it would die,

C••• F• Am•••••

You can dance in a hurricane,

Am••• G• C••• F• C•••

But only if you're standing in the eye

F• C••• F•
V2: Where did you learn to walk?
C••• F• C• G• Am• F• C••• F•

Where did you learn to run away from everything you love?

C••• F• C••• F•

Did you think the bottle would ever ease your pain?

C• G• Am• F• C••• F•

Did you think that love's a foolish game?

C• G• Am• F• C•• G••••

Did you find someone else to take the blame?

Cho: I wrapped your love around me like a chain
 But I never was afraid that it would die
 You can dance in a hurricane
 But only if you're standing in the eye
 You can dance in a hurricane
 But only if you're standing in the eye

Repeat Intro

F• C... F• C... F•C•
 V3: I am a sturdy soul and there ain't no shame,
 G• Am• F• C...
 In lying down in the bed you made
 F• C• G• Am• F• C•• G....
 Can you fight the urge to run for another day?
 Am•• G•• C....
 You might make it further, if you learn to stay

Cho: I wrapped your love around me like a chain
 But I never was afraid that it would die
 C... F• Am....
 You can dance in a hurricane
 Am.... G....
 But only if you're standing in the eye
 C... F• Am....
 You can dance in a hurricane,
 Am.... G• C
 But only if you're standing in the eye

Starting notes: Verse: F# A# C#. Chorus: B F# D#