

Autumn

Dan Hartman / Key F (Capo 5, Play C) 4/4 T=68

C+9 F+9
Autumn, the wind blows colder than summer
C+9 F+9
Autumn, my love's gone with another
C. G/B. Am
I can't demand anything of myself now
G F
So I guess I'll stay here in New England
C. G/B. Am
For autumn, autumn

Buildings look tall and gray,
Birds flying, haven't much to say,
They all know that it's coming again,
So I guess they'll stay here in New England, for autumn,
Autumn

G. D/F#. Em C. G/B. Am
Did you ever lose something, that you thought you knew?
G. D/F#. Em C. G/B. Am
Did you ever lose someone, who was close to you?
Am G.. D Am F
Well I lost my lover and my summer too

To autumn, the wind blows colder than summer
Autumn, my love's gone with another
I can't demand anything of myself now
So I guess I'll stay here in New England
For autumn, autumn, autumn

Addl: Capo 3, Play D